

Our Objectives

- To work for the welfare of the girl child
- To enlighten the adolescent girls on health & hygiene and impart quality education
- To provide vocational education and promote life skill development to enhance self confidence in adolescent girls
- To develop their personality by conducting sports and games for adolescent girls
- To work for eradication of child marriages, dowry and other social evils
- To educate the women for optimum utilization of government schemes in various fields
- To involve women in environmental initiatives
- To educate the women on health issues
- To empower the aged to be self-reliant and make their old age meaningful and productive
- To provide physical and psychological care for the elderly apart from strengthening their bonds with society